AHRC ICT Methods Network Expert Seminar

SUSTAINABILITY OF DIGITAL RESOURCES IN THE ARTS AND HUMANITIES

Franklin-Wilkins Building, King's College, London, Wednesday 29 November 2006

DELEGATE LIST

Daisy Abbot	Arts and Humanities Data Service (AHDS) Performing Arts, University of Glasgow, Scotland.
Sheila Anderson	Arts and Humanities Data Service (AHDS), King's College, London, UK.
David Bates	Institute of Historical Research, University of London, UK.
Rachel Bruce	Joint Information Systems Committee (JISC), London, UK.
Vanessa Carr	The National Archives, London, UK.
Christie Carson	Royal Holloway, University of London, UK.
Julia Craig-McFeely	(Digital Image Archive of Medieval Music) DIAMM, University of Oxford, UK.
Paul Ell	Queen's University, Belfast, Northern Ireland.
Ken Emond	The British Academy, London, UK.
Catherine Hardman	AHDS Archaeology, University of York, UK
Heather Haskins	AHRC ICT Programme, UK.
Michael Jubb	Research Information Network, the British Library, UK.
Suzanne Lodato	The Andrew W Mellon Foundation, US.
Rob Procter	NCeSS, University of Manchester, UK
John Rink	Royal Holloway, University of London, UK.
David Robey	AHRC ICT Programme, UK.
Chris Rusbridge	Digital Curation Centre, University of Edinburgh, UK
David Shepherd	Humanities Research Institute, University of Sheffield, UK.
Jane Winters	Institute of Historical Research, University of London, UK.

AHRC ICT Methods Network staff in attendance: Hazel Gardiner, Neil Grindley, Lydia Horstman, Lorna Hughes